From the Rabbi's Study

In Every Generation

Soon we will be reading in our Passover Haggadah the message that not only Pharaoh and the Egyptians wanted to destroy us, but in every generation, there arise those who want to annihilate us. Today, the enemies are Iran and their cohorts in Hamas and Hezbollah; and others around the world.

However, this Passover we should have an extra feeling of confidence in the second half of that message in the Haggadah: The Holy One Blessed Be He saves us from their power. Israel has not only the strong support of the United States of America but for the first time in modern history the cooperation with some of the Arab States in the region against their common enemy Iran.

We should feel good when we say, "Barukh Shawmehr Havtakhataw L'ahmaw", "Thanks and blessings to the One Who keeps His promise to His people".

Happy Passover !

~ Rabbi Barukh Schectman

YIZKOR MEMORIAL SERVICE

There will be a Yizkor service on Saturday morning, April 27. When most of us think about Yizkor, we think about Yom Kippur afternoon when we gather each year to recall all of our beloved family and friends who are no longer with us. But traditionally, the Yizkor memorial service is held three other times each year. One of those is on the eighth day of Passover. This year, Passover concludes on Shabbat. You can come at 9:30 and enjoy the Shabbat morning service and stay for Yizkor, or you can come just for the Yizkor prayers which will begin around 11:00. It is also traditional to light a yahrzeit candle on the evening of the seventh day of Passover, so that it will burn through to the end of the holiday.

MEGILLAH READING

A fun time was had as members and friends joined the fun on March 20th to hear the story of Esther, shake their groggers at the mention of Haman and enjoy the delicious homemade hamentashen made the day before by the 4th graders and Katherine Kohrman.

THE NEZVESKY SCHOOL

א ב ג ד ה ו ז ח ט י כ ל מ נ ס ע פ פ צ ק ר ש ת

Purim was celebrated with a great deal of fun this year. Our 4th graders retold the story in the style of Dr. Seuss and were followed by our 6th and 7th graders performing a Purim tune on violin, trumpet and accordion. The Purim Carnival included new activities such as Glitter Tattoo and Jelly Bean guessing. Many thanks to our volunteers, Francesca and Ben Glazer, Cheryl Gilman, Gabrielle Joshpe, Dona Malitsky, Jacob Markowsky, Susan Rubin, Jessica Sachs, Pam Tassiello, Eric Vine, and especially to our organizers, Claudia Mele and Laura Goldstein.

We also had a wonderful presentation by Terry Murphy and Mariam Azeez on their book, Soulful Sydney. The Caring Committee sponsored the event and provided a copy to each family in the religious school. The children appreciated its message of respect and welcoming diversity across different people.

Photographs of these events can be seen elsewhere in this newsletter.

April will have a number of special events even though school will be curtailed because of spring break and Pesach. On Friday, April 5 we will celebrate Rabbi Schectman turning 80 during Kabbalat Shabbat services, and on Sunday April 7 we will have our Model Seder sponsored by school families.

As this year is coming to an end, we are starting to plan for next year. Some emails have already gone out for the 4-7th grades to look at scheduling for the midweek classes and how to handle the inevitable conflicts that occur each year. We are looking at new technology to ameliorate those difficulties and to enhance our children's learning.

Happy Pesach!

KOSHER CREATIONS

We hope you will enjoy trying out these tasty treats each month. Bonnie Goldstein will be collecting and compiling the recipes for the newsletter. If you would like to contribute a favorite recipe for this section, please email it to her at bhgoldstein1836@gmail.com. If you have a photo of your dish to include with the recipe, send that too! Recipes must follow Kosher guidelines.

The following recipe was submitted by Linda Baulsir.

BRISKET

For every 2 lbs. of brisket...

Stir together in a bowl:

1 cup of Manischewitz Concord Grape Wine

¼ cup of ketchup

¼ cup maple syrup (or brown sugar or agave)

1 tablespoon mustard

Three carrots

Three stalks of celery

One sliced onion

Three or four cloves of garlic

Salt and pepper to taste

Place carrots, celery, onion and crushed garlic on the bottom of a roasting pan.

Place brisket on top after you have rubbed the salt and pepper into the meat.

Pour the wine mixture over the top (braising liquid).

Cover the roasting pan tightly with tin foil and put into a 350 degree oven for 3 ½ to 4 hours.

After allowing the meat to cool, place in the refrigerator overnight.

Before serving, remove the fat from the braising liquid. Slice the meat and place in a shallow pan with enough liquid to cover.

Put the carrot, onion garlic and celery into either a food processor or blender and puree the vegetables.

Put the remaining braising liquid in a sauce pan, bring to a boil then add the pureed vegetables (this thickens the gravy).

Join our Israeli Folk Dancing Group

Israeli folk dancing has come to Adath Israel!! In Israel itself, there are thousands of dancers who enjoy Israeli dancing—known as Rikudei Am (dances of the people)—they meet regularly and have huge repertoires of dances. In our congregation, a group of budding enthusiasts have been gathering at the synagogue to learn a few of these traditional dances. We meet twice monthly, usually on Tuesday evenings. No prior experience is necessary. We teach simple dances that can be learned easily and we review the steps each time. It is fun, it is lively, and it is aerobic! It is also a perk of your synagogue membership. Non-members are also welcome, for a small fee. So, join us! And bring your friends too! For more information, and to be put on the group's mailing list, contact Katherine Kohrman at ritual@congadathisrael.org.

THANK YOU

I want to extend a belated thank you for the support that I received after my husband's passing. I have come to realize what an extraordinary community Adath Israel is. Your support meant the world to me.

Caring Committee Update

During the month of March our committee was active in synagogue events. We sponsored a Sunday school program called Soulful Sydney. The author and the girl from Newtown who inspired the book on diversity came to speak to our children in the Hebrew School for a book reading and discussion. We purchased a copy of the book for each Sunday school family. We provided refreshments for the students. Our committee proudly provided the flowers for Katherine Kohrman's 50th anniversary of her Bat Mitzvah celebration. In addition, we sent cards and planted trees in Israel in memory of the loved ones recently lost by two of our congregants.

As always, if anyone knows of someone who would benefit from our services, please contact Sue Morse at: caring@congadathisrael.org. Please share your Mitzvah's with us as well.

BOOK TALK

Local Author, Deborah Vadas Levison, talks about her new book, THE CRATE, at Adath Israel on April 28 at 2pm.

After surviving the horrors of the Holocaust – in ghettos, on death marches, and in concentration camps – a young couple seeks refuge in Canada. They settle into a new life, certain that the terrors of their past are behind them. They build themselves a cozy little cottage on a lake in Muskoka, a cottage that becomes emblematic of their victory over the Nazis. The charming retreat is a safe haven, a refuge from haunted memories.

That is, until a single act of unspeakable violence defiles their sanctuary. Poking around the dark crawl space beneath their cottage, they discover a wooden crate, nailed tightly shut and almost hidden from view. Nothing could have prepared them for the horror of the crate's contents – or how the peace and tranquility of their lives would be shattered.

Now, their daughter, Deborah Vadas Levison, an award-winning journalist, tells the extraordinary account of her parents' ordeals, both in one of the darkest times in world history and their present-day lives. Written in searing, lyrical prose, THE CRATE: A Story Of War, A Murder, And Justice examines man's seemingly limitless capacity for evil... but also, his capacity for good.

HOST AN ONEG OR KIDDUSH

Hosting a Friday Oneg or Saturday Kiddush is performing a Mitzvah for our community. After services is a time when we have a chance to slow down and catch up on the weekly events with our fellow congregants.

It's not only a Mitzvah, but a way for you to celebrate an event in your family and share the good news with our congregation. Many people host to commemorate birthdays, anniversaries, engagements, awards, graduations, victories and other happy occasions. You may also host in memory of a loved one. Of course, you don't need a reason to host and you may also buddy up and host with a friend.

If you wish to participate in this Mitzvah or for more information, please e-mail the office at:
